Title: Design a web page using CSS (Cascading Style Sheets) which includes the following: 1) Use different font, styles: In the style definition you define how each selector should work(font, colour, etc.). Then, in the body of the pages, you refer to these selectors to activate the styles.

Theory: The tag was used to specify the font family, font size, and color of text. It can be modified by CSS and can be changed for a specific element(inline CSS), a specific page(internal CSS), and for the whole website(external CSS). In order to use internal CSS, we specify the selectors and the properties in the <style> tag in the head of the HTML document.

Code:

<!-- Design a web page using CSS (Cascading Style Sheets)
which includes the following:
1) Use different font, styles:
In the style definition you define how each selector should work (font, color etc.). Then, in the body of your pages, you refer to these selectors to activate the styles. -->

Title: Design the following static web pages required for an online bookstore web site:

- 1)HOME PAGE: The static home page must contain three frames.

- 4)REGISTRATION PAGE

Theory: Using <frameset> to divide the home page in frames, using <table> tag in catalogue page, using <form> in registration and login page and using classes and storing them in an external css file to reuse them in various other elements in various webpages.

  At Pixar, we LOVE shorts! In fact, our first ventures in storytelling
    through film were with short films and commercials. Beginning with Luxo
    Jr., shorts have allowed us to tell stories in different ways than our feature films, but often with just as much emotional impact.

  Innovative storytelling has always been at the core of Pixar's foundation,
    and our shorts allow the freedom to experiment and develop
  both new ways
    to tell stories and new technologies – many of which often then go on to be used in our feature films. Just as important, our short films also allow us to cultivate the next generation of storytellers here at the studio, letting individuals work on smaller teams and often hold leadership positions for the first time.

Innovative storytelling has always been at the core of Pixar's foundation, and our shorts allow the freedom to experiment and develop both new ways to tell stories and new technologies - many of which often then go on to be used in our feature films. Just as important, our short films also allow us to cultivate the next generation of storytellers here at the studio, letting individuals work on smaller teams and often hold leadership positions for the first time.
